Love

By

The Beloved in all beings

Aya Coeur-de-Soleil

Wonderful Friends,

The entire universe is a highly successful love affair.
Do you agree? If so, you must be a lover yourself.

Welcome!

When we commune with life, we become this magnificently orchestrated ocean of love, eventually flowing ourselves into pure ecstasy. We learn that love is the big lesson from the choices in our lives: experiences, emotions, desires, thoughts and a variety of partners, from mother nature to sweethearts to friends-in-the-moment...

Among the dancers of life, the mystical types choose to be in love with the ultimate partner: the Source of creation and all consciousness. This is the pristine & primordial relationship, whether it is kept formless (the Nameless One) or embodied in a deity or in a human lover seen as divine.

This anthology of poetic blossoms celebrates the only reality there is: Love.

It is a grateful ovation to the perennial & exquisite play
the Lover and the Beloved the King and the Queen the Sun and the Moon...

Let us celebrate ourselves as Beings of Golden Love!

Be prepared, O Friend:
Love is inevitable
It is infinity now!

With Source Love,
Aya

You are most welcome to quote speak, chant and dance any song-line or any song-step therein

Beloved

When you are battle-weary
O Beloved
And feel buried under the dust of the world
Remember
You can walk to my heart
And therein rest your tired feet
I'll gently brush them with my hair
And anoint them with precious oils

When the birds in your soles
Can't fly anymore and stop, exhausted
Remember
Let them land on my heart
Let them feel the throbbing beat
And touch the loving pulse Soon they will bring back
Eager wings to your own steps

When you lean back on me
Your own very self
I will stretch to catch you Wherever you are I'll wash your precious eyelids one by one
And bless them with my trembling lips

O Beloved
I cover your feet with kisses
Delightfully

All One

I am alone
Yet I am not

I have an on-going date
With the divine roommate
It is a sweet secret
Deep within my heart
We have a meeting place

I told her:
Won't you move in?
Twinkling she said:
I am built in
I am your in-dweller
Won't you move in

I am your beloved
You carried me huddled in your heart
All those years
When you were looking half-tone
When you were feeling alone

I am the kiss of the Kisser
And the velvet lips of the Lover
Let's enter the nuptial chamber

I am your kin friends calling upon you
And all their many friends
I am your neighbors
And all the strangers

I am the shaman the sha-woman
And also your shadow-man

I am your maiden teen
Your consort and your queen
I am the man woman on the road
And all the seekers
On the path

My love

Bounty

O Beloved

I am your precious wine
Here
Sip me
Deliciously

I am the cup of your hands
Here
Offer me up Endlessly

I am your wing-like foot
Here
Dance me
Across the starry skies

I am the sun and the moon
Within your eyes
Here
See me
As your entire creation

O Beloved
How can we ever find

Infinity

Even this
Your most beautiful name
O Beloved
How can I ever squeeze You into it?
You are the un-namable
Who is calling all names

Your most delightful form
O Beloved
Is un-graspable
How could it ever show All You Are?
You are No Form
Appearing in dazzling shapes

Even this
O Beloved
Is un-catchable
You are the Cosmic Faery
Smiling to all newborn

Even this
Your most blissful soul
O Beloved
Is but a glimpse of your full ecstasy
You are the All-Glowing Maker of souls

Even this
The sweetest nectar on your lips
O Beloved
Will only quench human thirst
You are the Heavenly Spring
Feeding all streams & rivers

O Beloved
We are

Date

We met
Under the waterfall
And again
Inside the Pavilion

Would you like to taste
This mullein blossom?
It's a crimson delight

At the waterfall
This rushing sky river
Cascades of liquid light Merrily splash
And pool around
Our dancing bodies

The earth spring bubbles

In the Pavilion
This temple womb of being
We sit upon the sky thrones

Minstrels of dawn
We sing lullabies
And play pizzicaties
While birthing children
On the loom of the world

How could there be Any other meeting place?

Doorway

You popped in suddenly
In this dreamtime wedding ceremony
You Dakini Princess

We enter the initiation line
Arching hands in this graceful doorway
Fingers pulsing arabesques
Following the golden thread of destiny
And walking
O so lightly

Others follow behind
Now a stream of dear friends
We turn to them
Curtsying & dancing blessings
All around the glorious Milky Way

Shy & blushing
Of starting life together
We are home
The kin of Light
The tribe of Cosmic Earth

Thank you o my Bride Goddess of Hymen
Within

Hummingbird

A hummingbird hovering by the window
And winking teasingly
While I am calling Upon the BeLoved

Hummingbirds can hover on the same spot
For an hour
Tell me:
How long can you sustain your love?

O Precious One
You multiply your bodies
Instantly
And display the entire universe
As your Presence

Yes
There is Only

Bliss Tickles

Do you know How Sometimes
It is quite difficult
To contain bliss
In your own hand?

It pours out of myriad pores
Like cascading rivers of ebullient joy
Merging back with the Great Ocean

Bliss bathing
Splashing
In bubbling soul springs

Wings touching
And hearts locking
In ticklish silence
We open our hands
And soar
In bliss

Courting Dance

Beloved Goddess
I welcome looking like a drunken fool
For kissing your feet in public
And prostrating to your queenly radiance
You are the Beloved
And I am openly sharing my Love

Beloved Goddess
I will cherish your wildest dreams
And honor even your craziest wishes
I completely trust

I feel so free to lose my own personality
And give you all my identities
I beg you to only choose
The whole of me

I want to Infinitely
Embarrass you
In front of the entire universe
Of my Love

Beloved
I want to see again
Blush

We Live Together
In a vast magic Visiting our hearts at will
And dwelling in each other's soul

Our bodies unravel their human stories
We laugh
And softly
Tickle their bellies

All The Way

Divine Lover
Here is my request

Do love me
With your full passionate might

Tumble my fortress walls
They are paper-thin card castles

Erase my illusions
They are dead dreams parading as life

Please
Dissolve the shadows
Lingering around my roof
So I may invite the sun

And blast the last boulders Obstructing my door
So I may open it wide

Do destroy the "I" in me
And root out the "me" in I

All the way

Beaming

I have seen You
Without your veils
Beyond your walls
With a beaming soul smile
And a singing softness in your voice

I know this is your majestic
And only Beauty

Will you let your lover
This entire creation
See more of you
Being your full Love?

Sacred dormant pathways
Marked by bird song-lines
Are re-opened in the forest of Self

Live ancestral jewels
Long kept hidden by the grandmothers
Are revealed again
Can you see our spirit names embossed in gold?

The light is landing on the mountain
To shine on the next generations

Let us
Meet again
One in One
The same light

Compliment

O precious lover Within

You are Most colorable
And uttermostly
Musicable

You are Enticingly dance-able
And appealingly
Hugable

But Over all
You are Blissfully lovable
As you mightily rise
In multiple cascading ripples
Of naked summer time showers
And waterfall splashes

Thank you
For streaming me
With your pulsing love waves
Up and down this flowering body river tree

Now I can feel you
Living your love life inside my life
Dancing the joy force
Across my oceans & continents

I can hear the melodies of your celestial choir songs Carried by my inner winds

My lover within Yes we are life mates

Creation

Because I am you
Why should I ask for a date

Because we are love
Why do we have to be lovers

The bond of awakening Contains all the relating

We are the womb
The lovers were born from
We have been Before love was even desired

Each other's mysterious beginning
Endless honeymoon

I see you singing me
In all forms
You see me dancing you
In all beings

How can I ever notice you
Until you disappear
In All?

When all the creators
Are gone to rest
And all the creatures
Are gone to sleep
We are the One

Daily
My gaze is rising
In a celestial sundance
To meet the Light

The appointed time is approaching
I am blushing

Meeting oneself
Can be very heart flopping
And certainly Eyelash curling

It's so enjoyable
And happy-able
To gaze into one's own eyes
And to sing
O my Love

Going out with oneself
Going in with the Be-Love One Being home

Flower Tower

Up the slowly revolving blue-veiled earth
Blooms a magic flying garden
The flower-planted tower
On its green velvety cushion of mountain skin

Thank you flower tower
For so graciously hosting
The Deva of Happiness
And her dancing faery ring

Thank you for embracing her smile of joy
With your sky meadows
And their foresty clouds
Thank you for keeping her safe
On her floating carpet deck

Thank you for being
A golden sunrise temple
This glorious smile of infinity on your face
These heavenly hues of color waves
This on-going celebration of sun dances

Thank you for so cozily nesting
A look-in shrine
In my secret heart
Inviting me to full residence
Seeing you home
Dwelling in your shiny soul of love

Thank you for standing up
As a light beacon to the world
Across oceans & landscapes & nations
Beaming new children to all earthlings
And smiles of baby wonder to all beings

For delighting us with sweeping views of love
And reminding us

Welcome

This flash image
Of love
Entering the sunrise day
Yes
It can stay!

O Divine Lover
Look around
At this golden landscape Awaiting us

This is Home
Now
After

Sun Queen

Pulsing rainbow lights
With your breath
Entering

Diving
Flying

Looking out for fires
Bathing

Shimmering
You keep the two suns Ringing

Golden white Queen
Showering
Blazing flowers
Of sun radiance
For all to see

Delightful
Blossom of happiness
Are

BOW

When you bow to the Sun
Over the horizon
Where the mountain is pink and the cloud violet
Blue is your shadow
And gold is your light

As you bow further
Arcing your gracile body stem
Your crown turns into a flower grail
And drinks the Sun
Into your very heart

When you wake up at dawn
And gaze at the Sun
I look through your eyes
And see

Auspica Belle

Auspica Belle of the Hi Tower
She is watching auguringly well
The rippling lucience of unquenchable lightnings Arteries of liquid light
Pulsing through the sky body

A twilight forest is flash sprouting
In the celestial gardens

One has to be a keen glimprer
To catch the instant wink of light beings

Sometimes you can even guess
Where the next bolt will strike
And undress in time for a power shower

Lightnings race play our horizon line
And dare us to be omnipresent
Retracing genetic scripts with auspicious heavenly fingers
They enjoy bursting mummy daddy bubbles
And launch unexpected and glorious weddings

Craftfully burning in her new body templates
She foretells a present
Where grown-ups climb trees of life
Like lightnings in reverse
Where children splash through cascading giggles of light Somersaulting with meadowlarks

And where babies
With peace in their bellies

Mountain Ship

Captain Happiness
Ushers of raw infinity
She navigates her mountain ship
Throughout the mighty desert ocean

Boldly entering the rippling horizons
She scans for treasure islands
Tribal aspen groves
And secret gossamer faery pools

Sometimes urgent waves of fire
Suddenly erupt from the waters
The energy rises up the world tower
The inner smile blossoms

And She the Watcher Stirs up
In her holy granite grail
New elixirs of fiery water

Every golden dawn
And every violet dusk
It is Her duty
To sprinkle the people of the world
With holy joy prayers
From atop
Her mountain ship.

The bird of love
Soars
In the vastness
Of being

It is the breath
Of
Sustaining itself
In gliding Majesty

Mountain Top

Hopping from mountain top
To mountain top
We like to take leisurely walks

On each summit
We stop long enough
To build a new temple
Offering up the fruits & flowers
Of the Earth's gardens
We dance ourselves to the sun
And from there
We bless the mountain

Sometimes we just rebuild
Some long-forgotten shrine
Still containing old prayers
We release them to heaven
Still resounding with ceremonies
We send them along the four directions

From mountain to mountain
We re-ignite the holy flames
The whole landscape is speaking again
The sacred language of the wind

Did you know
That the valleys too
Are ancient mountains?
If you wait long enough
It's all going
Up and down

Sometimes we just stop all doing
And become the mountain
Become the valley
Would you like to try?

River Walk

Good morning
Would you like to take a magic walk
In the River of Life?

Yes she says
The river is already in me
And I love to swim within myself

I am the bountiful river Tight kissing the earth
Breathing life
In my pulsing tides
And meandering my blessings
Among the holy lands

Look at all the people
They come to bath in me
And to splash their joy
They come to watch my flows
And feel at peace again
On their own sandy beach

O see this giggly bird
Sliding thru the skies
And sweetly winking at you

On the river
One can smell
The full scent of life
Calling

What is this rumbling sound in the water?
And this deeper current carrying us?
Hear - the ocean is drinking the river

How will it be
To become the ocean?

Sun Nest

up the ladder
Of your unmoving Center
Here you come to visit

Tírluíííít

You stretch and bask
In this festive nest Purring
This islet of joy
Dancing rays be hiways

Did I surprise you, you say...

Twirlitoooo

Yes here
No longer longing
To jump
Instantly here
Meeting in no-meeting Holding in giving free
May I move in ?

The embrace
Of Grace
Face to Face
Sun cuddled in Moon

Celestial Toast

Bountiful Sourceress of All Life
And Weaveress of All Harmony

Celestially toasting
Upon this altar of you-me
The flowering Now
This passionate fiery water pool
Churning infinities

Co-celebrating & festivaling
With the entire human family
This magnificent mirificent
Earth Galactic Paradise

Seeing the plenteousness of this Love Garden Fully entering this delightful raw offering Opening again to life

Seeding this WeLove Earth Mother
With many-hued harvests of new blossoms
And cornucopias of thundering beauty births

Inspiring all Beings
To surf up their sacred inner geyser
And shine forth their all embracing Love Radiance

Rivers of flowing joy west-forking
Thru all your canyons & mountains & valleys
Public & intimate sacred sites
Of your holy body-mind temple Fitnessing You and us all
Of Music Dance Laughter

Bowing to Your Heavenly Presence of Glory

Footprints

O Be-Love One
I kiss your feet

The feet that took you thru all the well-trodden paths
And then carried you into new trails
Wildering adventures into the unknown

The feet that graciously walk you
So you may be a pilgrim flower
Dancing upon the earth's meadows

I kiss your footsteps
The winged ways you so lightly touch the ground Caressing the skin of Mother Earth
And sending shivers cursing thru her veins

I kiss your footprints
The holy temples you leave behind
These sacred mandala impressions
Where your feet decisively outline the sandy soil Embossing the seal of your presence
For all to see
May all beings who step into your footprints
Be forever blessed

I kiss the dust upon your feet
And the road gathering the dust
And the landscape where the road spirals up
And this whole planet hosting her many lands
O fair-footed one
How can I stop kissing you ?

I kiss the footprint of the raindrop
Patiently sculpting the ancient rock
The deposit of the snowflake
Layering the white virgin land
The wind's breath cradling the baby leaf
And singing a lullaby to the blossoming buds

I kiss the smile shyly floating across the street
The unexpected hand stretched to help
The feeling of gratitude warming the friend's heart
And the tingly flows of golden light Pulsing all beings

O Be-Love One
Take a kiss from your hand
And place it on the sole of your feet
So that today
You may leave behind
An enticing trail of kisses
For all to follow
On the path of love

walking upon your own self

Bloom

O my Lover
You are the Goddess
In this earth clad form
The power Dance of Sky & Earth
The sacred Song of Bride & Groom
The cosmic Bond of Creator & Creature

I am the God
In this fiery clad form
Re-entering your eyes
And tuning them back
To your own Beauty

I see the queenly Goddess
In every woman you are
I see the whirling Princess
In every girl you are
I see the blessing Faery
In every child you are

I see the regal God
In every man I am
I see the charming Prince
In every boy I am
I see the merry Elf
In every infant I am

O my Lover
We are the return Home

Let's leave
On the sandy shore of infinity
Holy & gracile footprints
Glistening white bliss pebbles
Hints & signals of Paradise

Beyond being created to contain love,
We are created to amplify love exquisitely
Until it contains us all

Universe

The mind says I bless
The heart says I bliss

The mind says I need guarantees of return
The heart says I'll open up anyway

The mind says do eat substantial foods
The heart says let me fly

The mind says I am free
The heart says I belong to the Be-Love One

The mind says I'm not anybody's partner
The heart says O my love

The mind says the universe is my mate
The heart says I am the universe

Both are right
Both are true
Both we are Two in one

How did you know
That my name is Universe?

Goddess

Our beloved daughter
Is born dancing
She knows
How to be One with All
And no-one always

Behold
Nurturing a Goddess seed
Is a sky-large pregnancy
The ancient art
Of Self-birthing

She says
I will show you
The ultimate desire
For no desire

No beginning and no end
No birth and no death
Not even a wave of bliss
Or the longing
For the next wave of bliss

I will teach you
The consummate skill
Of journeying through life Without leaving a trace
Or even making waves

I am your child
I am Love within you
I am you within Love

Tantri Ka Li

My Beloved is the mighty Goddess of War
Thundering thru the galactic lands
Yet, her kisses are sweet blossoms
Delicate petals of love
Tender droplets of serenity

After you wage your cosmic wars
O my Lover
The battle-fields burst into flowers

My Beloved is the fierce Amazon Queen
Relentlessly ripping apart the bellies of men
Yet her tongue drips nectar
Her mouth is a cup of honeydew

O my Lover,
Your blood-dripping sword is a magical wand
Churning open the cosmic seas of Bliss
And birthing the new species

My Beloved is the keen-eyed Eagle
Swooping down on human egos
And snatching away their hidden games
Yet, her Heart is an affectionate embrace
The smudging touch of a fluffy feather
Hand-fastened to my heart

Your wing power O my Love
Is soaring life into infinity

My Beloved is the Golden Sun of Midnight
The Hush in the midst of the Rush
She is Tears of Joy

When I hold hands with my Beloved
The tingles ripple to the stars

Harmony

O Lover Friend
Fills up the universe

See
All beings pause and rest Listening
To the Presence

I am your music
You are my choir
We all sustain the worlds

Swells in my heart
Like a springtime exultation
Of juicy coursing sap

O celestial Muse
Is the heart fluffing laughter of love
It rings and cascades thru my dome sky
Fluttering my tingly wings
Playing upon my breath like a wind-harp
Shivering my dormant spine
Into a leaping deva
Stretching my skin
Into an opalescent prayer flag
And drumming hot rhythms all over my bones

Singing in silence
We touch all souls
And dance

Fingertips

Thank you
For this wonderful gift
Offered in friendly trust
Holding hands

Now
I is We

Laying down
Nestled between the cupped rocks
And the night sky
Tingling
In this flying carpet love room

The heaven is landing upon us
The earth is surging from below
They meet within us
In sweet union

Infinity is born
In this precious gift

Holding hands
Around the worlds Holding light
Across the skies Holding stars Between fingertips

Holy Pagodas

My skin cells
Pointing
Like holy pagodas

Tonight
The wind breath of spirit
Is blowing strong
Tickling and teasing my bodyscapes
Shaking my sacred grounds
And seeding
Heavenly piquancy

The inner tides ripple thru Dissolving walls & boundaries
And somersault illusions

My cells are pirouetting alive
Like holy antennas
They talk back and forth
With our extended family
Across the universe

Love is blowing tonight Jump into This Fragrant Breeze

Heart Pool

Your soul eyes of infinity
Bliss hostess
Gaze deep within my heart pool
And turn it
Into this ocean
Called
Life in a blessed body

Gratitude Magnitude Is
The
Attitude

Love Flower

I see You in the One
I see the One in You

The bubbly foam of clouds undulates Enticingly
And, belly dancing to the stars,
The ocean below is admiring herself
In the sky mirror

From roots to fruits
The River of Life waterfalls upon us all

Giggling to heaven
We splash coconut water
Upon the rising sun

Meeting friends & strangers
We offer them
The same love-scented flower
Called Now
It hovers in front of them
Wherever they go
They see its radiance
Before even seeing their own face

At the tiniest sign of love
We become universe

At the smallest hint of infinity
We become the whole cosmos

O Be-Love One
My sky is your ocean

Heavenly Queen

Within my Sacred Heart,
There is a ringing this pure Song
Of you saying: "My Love!"

I love u bubblingly
Naively ex-uberantly in-uberantly
Irreverenciously and lusciously
Growing in this infinite love dance
Then beautifully sky flowering
And now mysteriously returning to seed
In the warm motherly ground

We welcome this inner season
This transition to the new harvest of fruity love
This shattering of dead dry branches
And gold wilting of leaves
Like turned over pages of the Life Book
The life sap lovingly gathers its sacred waters
On the way back to the Great Spring

Each step of this miracle journey
Brings an expanding wondrous awe
For your magnificent courage power
The pristine raw moment
Your primordial unwavering focus On the highest truth you are Clear cutting thru any comfort in the way
Of this Self Flower

My heart pulses as lover's lips
When calling and feeling you
Of communing beyond bodies
It palpitates like silvery tides at high noon sun
When seeing your dazzling face
And delightedly renewing your commitment
To this ever born love affair with the universe

MOON KISS

The moon Dropped
A star
In the pearly sky

It's a silvery sparkly jewel
For us to catch
And suspend in our heart

The heart is a full moon
You know

All my sacred pools
Throb and dance
Under your selenial story song

All my surging tides
Ripple up to inscribe Line by line
This golden sand poem
On your infinite shore

Is Moon
Kissing
Time

Mother Life

Life o Mother
Delightedly discovering my own family Meeting my very kin Everywhere I turn

Here my sister this munificent crone
Here my brother this somersaulting toddler
For the first time

Life o my bride
You fulfill all my wishes
I hear you softly whispering
It's all possible

O BeLoved jump in Wish boundlessly larger Speak the immensity of your heart
And open wide your fountain of god-crazy desires

My womb is infinite
My joy a vast ocean Come
And love me

Granting
Are All Fulfilled

Love is One

Here is a secret
For your heart altar:
The one you really love
Always loves you back

You may never see it
In your life time
And they may never know it
All through their busy life

But love is always returned
Love is always shared back

Love weaves life Ceaselessly
Back & forth & across
More intimate than birth & death
Passionately attracted to its own origin

Love is source and ocean and sky
And always comes back to itself
Wherever you jump

And instantly
Brings all the sides together
You and your other self
You and the Divine
You and You

Give your love freely
O Friend
Swim in this river of union
And bring others along

Offering

The rocks in the river
The moments of dismay Enhance the Joy

The sleepy night kissing the new day

Quench Your
Desire
Drink from nature
In all her passionate mating forms
Ushering this ocean of love Directly

Then Offer Yourself
And Drink
From your own Self

This Full Blossom

Sometimes we are alone
Sometimes we are together
We don't really decide
It comes and goes
We are

We are together in stark aloneness
We are alone in naked togetherness
Can you see
It is the same
It all happens
Within the One we are

If you choose not to choose
And prefer not to prefer
There you are always home
And there is no one else
But you in love
With love

Oh let me know what is Beyond my denying it
And let me know what is not

Above all let me feel
Who is Within us all

Bodhisattva Girl

I see You
Within your body
I see You
Without your body

I see your body Within You
I see You
In every body

I can reach and touch You
When You are far away
When I come back
You already raced me Home

Whenever I call Here You are Whenever You call
I already answered

Whatever route I take
I find your footsteps
And the flowers you planted
Whichever way you go
There is my Presence
And the echoes of my songs

O Great Belove
Why journey anywhere?
Now
We fill in all directions
We are lovers in Creation

Let us embrace this universe until all hearts are pouring back in the glorious Cup of love

Kisses

We are playing kisses
Soft cocoony kisses of light
Sending them back & forth & around Apple foam kisses
Sky blossom kisses
Dew drop kisses
And many more...

Aiming kisses is a fine art
And sometimes we miss
We then have to quickly bend over to catch them
And blow them back up in the air

Sometimes too we let them float out
With golden gentleness
Sparkly love bubbles journeying in the winds
We know - you and me
They will enter someone's heart
The sweet surprise of life Kissing us unexpectedly when we need it most

Sometimes - I am sure you noticed Kisses take their time
They gather patiently
On some magical and secret cloud
They settle there for a season or so
And socialize with friends and relatives
They even take the time to form families
And bring in more kiss children

And then one beautiful day
When the air is dew fragrant and the sun is beaming smiles
And slowly descend on lonely human hearts

Don't miss playing kisses
They are waiting for you to catch them
And pass them around to all your friends

Thank We

Thank we for being divinely complete unto our Self
The compassionate woman in man
The Infinite in this breeze body

Thank we too for being beautifully incomplete
Delightfully imperfect human beings
Deeply embracing pain & separation
And feeding each other its juicy emotions

Thank we for the ultimate desire
Of longing for the Holy Lover
Within earth water air sun & sky
And within all beings & all relations
This unending honeymoon
Of creation

Thank we for holding high the crystal glass of life
Sometimes half full Sometimes half empty
And heartily toasting to all generations

Thank we for climbing up & down
The spiraling vine of life
Dipping into the well
Running into the cave
And casting rainbow seeds beyond the sunset clouds

Thank we for visiting the other side of the magic mirror
Welcoming light & shadow
As a pair of laughing lovers
Juggling & dancing back & forth

Thank we for honoring you as the Goddess Mother
For seeing me as the Star Father
For greeting my love support
And for presenting me with your loving trust

Thank we for the cheery encouragements we offer each other Swapping pedestals & chalices of nectar
And steadily standing
Amidst the raging waters

Thank we for the strength of being self-sufficient
And for the softness of being vulnerable Flowing in this Magnificent
Now

Thank we for the wild challenges
To go beyond old boundaries Playing new music melodies
And gathering harmony
From tender listening

Thank we for pointing to on-going learning
Respecting the wisdom tides of change
As dear gifts to eagerly exchange

Thank we for allowing our hearts
To regally host each other
And sing back In Reverent Silence

Empty

The face of shadow
Looks
At the faceless Light
Who is seeing ?

Looks
At the Beloved

Empty of self
Full of the One Alone

Silence

May I listen to your silence ?

The rhythmic breath of the live stillness
Beating in your heart
The slender canoes
Traveling your mind's eye
In quiet hush
The filigree tinkle bells
Of your feather touch
On my soul altar ?

May I hear your love songs
Echoing across the lands ?

O listen
This is the melody
Of your smile
Looking at me

Am I seeing myself ?

Disappearance

I used to delight
In gazing at your lovely face
And shouting your precious name to the universe Yes I enjoyed playing hide & seek With your charming smile

I used to look at your cherished picture
And invite you out of the frame
To dance together every moment
Of my life

Now
O my love
You disappear as one single face
Of this blessed creation

Now
O universal lover
I sometimes forget
The velvety sound of your maiden name
And hear you ushering your love
In all the names you shape thru my lips
As your kiss gifts
To this merry world

Now
I even rejoice
In the dance
Of your disappearance
You are My entire heart self

Did we ever meet?
Oh I know
We never parted

Friend

Take your heart
To the Meeting of Hearts

O friend
Take the time
To become The Source of Time

And above all
O friend
Take your hand
Into Her Hand

And walk
In delight
To the meeting place
Of the Lovers

About Aya and the StarWheels

Aya is the creator of the StarWheel Mandalas, a family of interactive holo-graphic templates inspired by a spirit vision in 1985, in Santa Monica, California.

Each StarWheel is a 6' x 6' painting airbrushed on canvas through multi-layered stencils.
To date, nine series of twelve
and new siblings are expected !

Aya and the team at the StarWheel Foundation are dedicated to co-create the StarWheel School of Mandala Arts, an educational campus centered on the creative experience of the Mandala and Sacred Geometry.

For more information about the Mandala School:

36 StarWheel images have been reproduced as 6" x 6" art cards (laminated & non-laminated).
The back of each card gives the title and theme
as well as a "Picto-Koan" journey through the inner significance of the image.
